

CAMERA VIEWS FROM FAR AND NEAR

UPPER left—The Joint Remington Burnelli, said to carry the largest cabin ever suspended on wings, shown aloft, driven by two 500-horsepower motors (Wide World Photo). Upper right—Members of the American Legion arriving at Cherbourg, headed for the battlefields upon which they fought three years ago. National Commander John G. Emery leads (Wide World Photo). Center left—Mirza Hussein Khan Alai, lately arrived in Washington as the new Minister from Persia (Clinedinst from Keystone View). Center right, upper—Retiring Governor General Harrison of the Philippines and Manuel Queson, president of the Filipino senate, standing before the governor's palace at Manila (Wide World Photo). Center right, lower—Mohammedans at Southfields, England, take part in the great Moslemic Sacrifice of Abraham, celebrated last week (Wide World Photo). Lower left—The supercruiser Pennsylvania passing under Brooklyn Bridge on her way to Panama, where she will land Marines to uphold the boundary award in the Panama-Costa Rica dispute (Wide World Photo). Lower right—A craft with more than thrice the speed of her giant sister. She is Miss America II, doing 80.9 miles an hour in trials for the British International trophy, handily won by Miss America I last year. She hails from Detroit and is owned and raced by Commodore Gar Wood (Wide World Photo).
